General Business

State Department Information (Teresa Lee)

Standards are included in conference packet.

Encourage your local school board to adopt these

Elections of District Representatives (Jack Elgin)

District chair people should submit two names from each district.

Manual Committee Report

(Stan Schoonover) Everyone should receive a new administrative handbook and CD of band, orchestra, and solo and ensemble material.

(Dan Kosko) Please read all manual materials carefully. Pay special attention to the All-Va information. There is an alphabetical listing of directors in the back. All other CDs are now obsolete. Newly graded works will appear on the web site immediately and can be performed at festival.

(Wayne Powell) We have a no pay, no play policy in effect regarding manual fees. Those who have paid their fees are posted on the web page.

(Stan Schoonover) The directory portion of the handbook is updated each year. This information is also available on the CD. Communication from District Chairpersons is important when there are director changes.

Conference Concerns (Jack Elgin)

Any ideas for sessions should be forwarded to Jack Elgin.

Performance tapes due by May 15, 2001. Band tapes to Jack Elgin and string tapes to Martin Sunderland.

Band Business

State Marching Band Festival Report (Ken Rudd) Thanks to all of the hosts for this year. The five judge set-up worked well. The event is still financially solvent. Forms will be sent out to each participant to recommend judges. If you are ever interested in hosting, please apply. We are working on a different awards procedure. Possibly a plaque will be presented to each drum major.

All Virginia Auditions Jonathan Hargis) Saturday, Feb. 24 JMU

There are new chromatic scale ranges in effect for some brass instruments. Copies of these will be mailed to each district. Volunteer cards will be sent to all VBODA members to hopefully include more middle school teachers. District representatives should contact Jonathan or Dan Lind if there are any changes in the original qualified student list.

(Dan Kosko) Is there a written cut off for changes?

(Jack Elgin) The weekend of the All-District event all final participation should be established, but I will check into an actual written date.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 5:40pm.
