

All-Virginia Auditions were held at James Madison University on February 27, 2016. Auditions ran within budget and populated the All-Virginia Concert Band, Symphonic Band and Orchestra. Adjudication panel was representative of the 16 districts within the commonwealth. The implementation of technology continues and has significantly improved the timing of the event. While some digital anomalies do exist, we continue to improve the overall experience for students and the membership.